Project Summary:

The groups immediately come together. However, one person need to finish his assignment and the other have a midterm come up. So the actual meet up is postponed. However, after we come together everything goes quite smoothly.

Our team decide our topic by voting via poal.me, so everybody is happy with the topic we picked for our project. We also have decent communications. Whenever someone finish some work, they always tell which part they finish in the group chat.
